What is CASE®?

Competencies and Academic Standards Exchange®

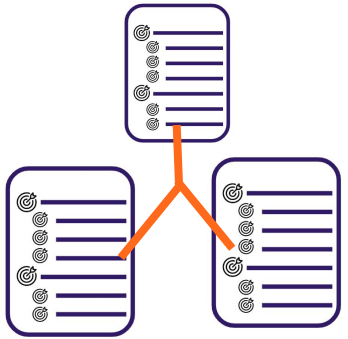

A digital (machine-readable) format for recording, publishing and exchanging academic objectives, competencies, and skills.

CASE Framework
A digital document with academic standards or competencies from a domain or course, organized in hierarchical order

CASE Framework Item
Each individual academic standard or competence. Each item has a Globally Unique Identifier (GUID)

Associations
Map relationships with other standards within a framework, or other frameworks

The CASE Globally Unique Identifier (GUID)

Benefits of CASE

With CASE, all your learning and assessment resources share unique identifying tags (GUIDs), ensuring the exchange of formative data.

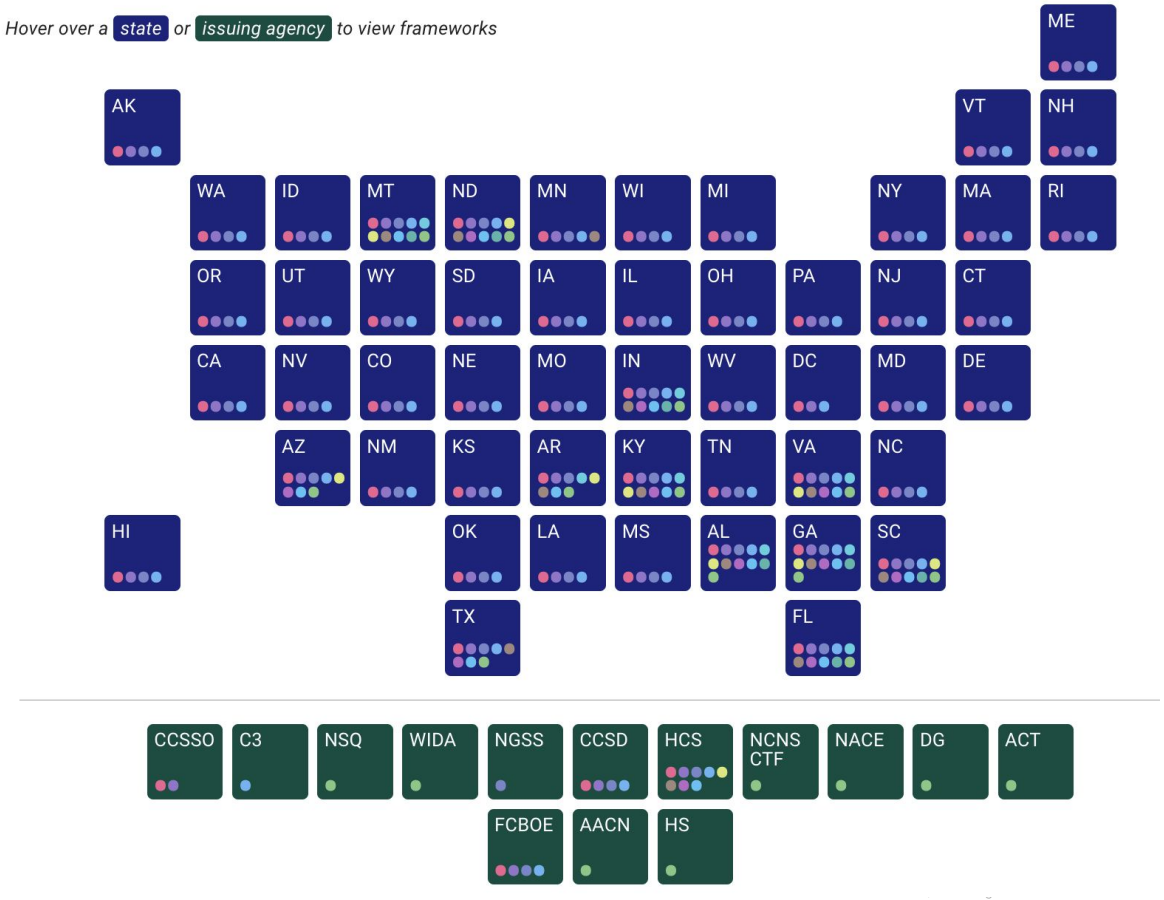

Educators can "see" students' progress and provide support.

CASE Network

A Central Repository of US K-12 Academic Standards

CASE Network 2 is a collaboration that establishes a single open repository service for US K-12 state and national academic standards and competencies.

Benefits of the CASE Network

Modern web app, CASE 1.1 certified

All US states standards available for download in a single API Call

Issuing agencies control the source of truth

In a standard, non-proprietary format, for a minimal fee

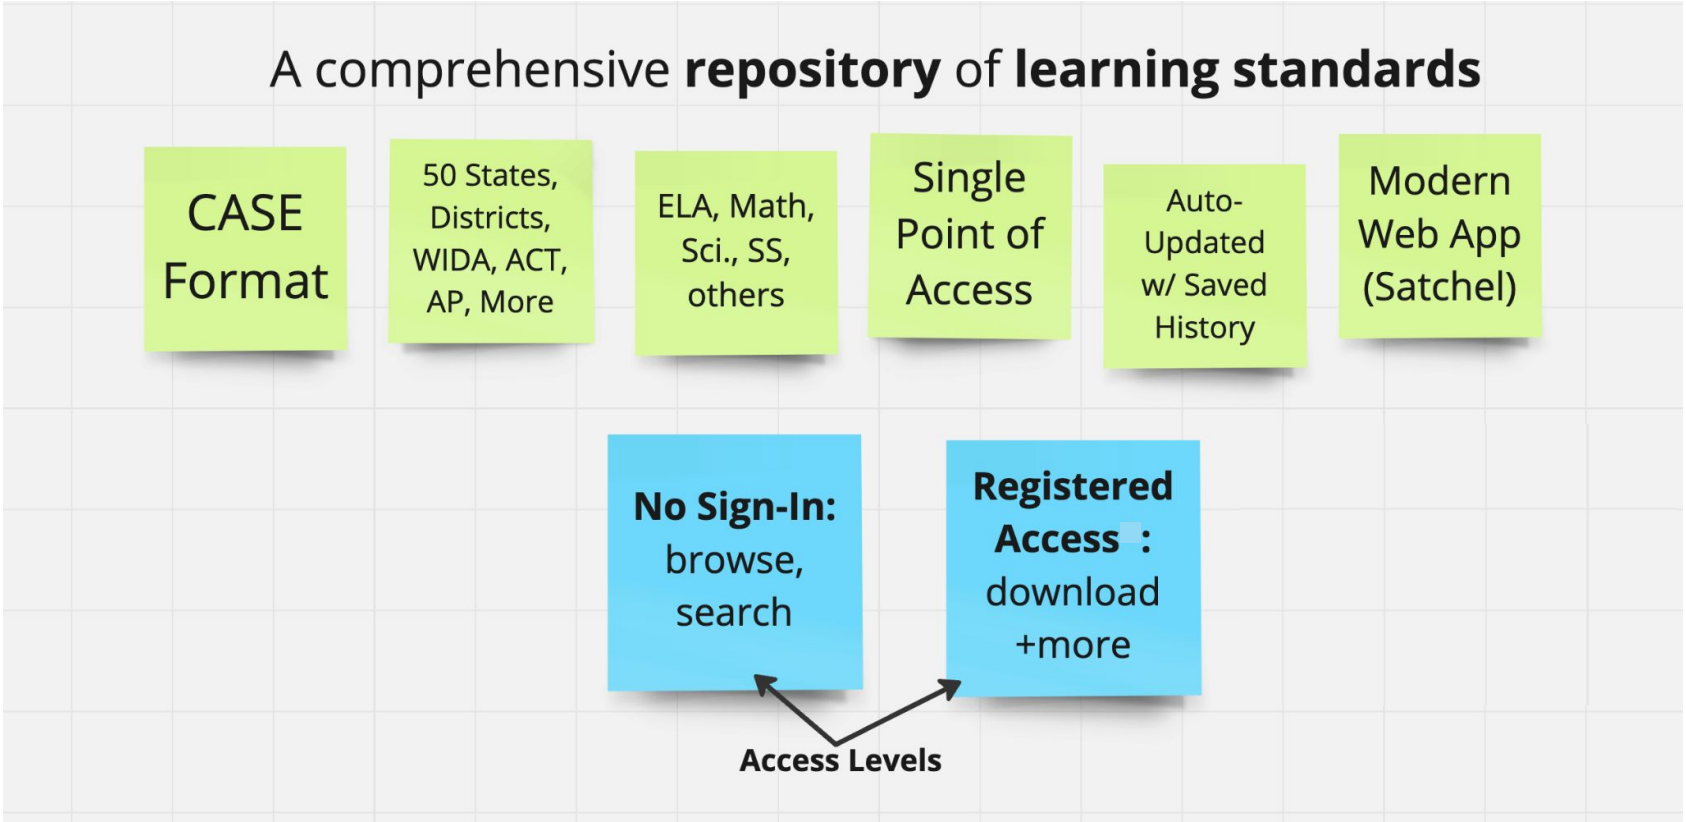

Frameworks with saved history

Make academic standards alignment easier, more accurate and less expensive.

The CASE Network

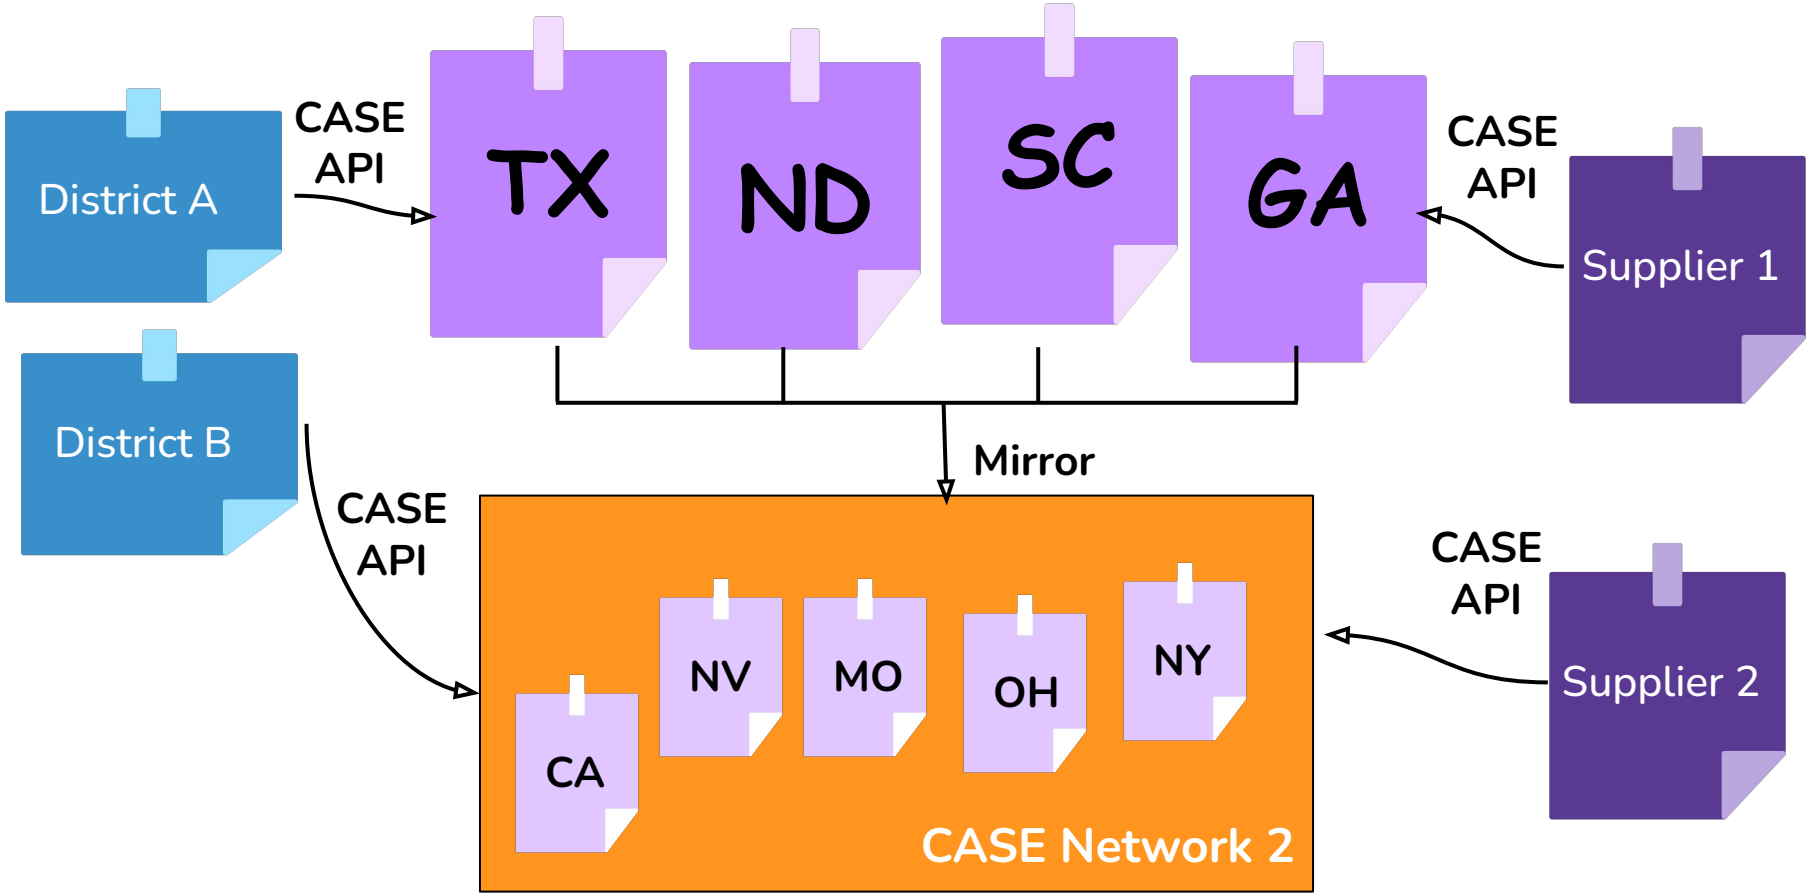

Benefits of Registered Access to Case Network 2

- 4 core subjects (ELA, Math, Science, SS) for all 50 states
- Frameworks updated/maintained by CGLT
- Software updated/maintained by CGLT
- Update Reports on frameworks
- Access to “GUID Translator” tool

NOTE: CASE frameworks of agencies that have published their academic standards using CASE format can be freely accessed directly from the agency’s CASE publishing tool.

CASE Network 2 vs. Legacy CASE Network

Summary of Differences

- Modern UI: Search, print, pin, view associations, ...
- Core 4 subjects for all 50 states (original repository had only Math, ELA)
- Frameworks actively updated/maintained by CGLT
    - Coming soon: Users can report errors in the system
- Improved Frameworks Update Reports and documentation
- Sustainable business model
- No agencies publishing directly on CN2
